SCHOOL DAYS

URING the past year or two Pania Marinoff has become well known to the motion picture public, having appeared in several hig features made by well known companies. Her greater fame rests, however, upor her work in the "legit" with such famone plays as "The House Next Door," "Within the Law," "Consequences," and Arnold Daly's revival of "Arms and the Man." Many of her appearances in this country have been made in Oriental and Slavic characters, which suit her exotic personality and eastern type of beauty. She is a true Russian, baving been born in Odessa about 20 years ago.

G. BERNARD SHAW ON THE CENSORS

G. Bernard Slaw, who has written much in condemnation of consumble of the stage in England, has something to say about movie consorable. The danger of the chema, says Shaw, "is not the danger of immural-ity but of more like.

"EXTRA GIRL"

MAKES GOOD

Another of those hard working "extra girls" who haunt the film officen until they either make good or lire. Ethel Burke by name, has just been made a member of the World Film stock company after two months of perseverance. Miss Burke left school, decided to go into pictures secured several days" work as an extra girl, which means that she was one of many of the mob. Last week while working in a senall scene in "Molly of Pig-Tail Alley," Director Emille Chautard was attracted by the expression on Ethel's face. Result—Ethel is now steadily at work and will get her first chance to show what she is capable of in support of Robert Warwick in "Friday the 13th."

Arrangements are soing forward for MAKES GOOD

Arrangements are going forward for the production at the World-Paragon studies of Romeo and Juliet with an all-star cast. The part of Romeo will probably be played by one of the following: House Peters, Robert Warwick, Carlyle Blackwell, or Robert Warwick, Carlyle Blackwell, or Robert Warwick, Carlyle Blackwell, or Robert Warwick, Carlyle Blackwell or Robert Warwick, Carlyle Blackwell or Robert Warwick, Carlyle Blackwell, or Robert Warwick, Carlyle Blackwell, or Robert Warwick, Carlyle Blackwell, and Edward Charles Black, Ritty Gordon, Jane Grey, Ethel Clayton, Gerda Holmes or Clara Klmball Toung.

Two beautiful and clever children. William and kithel Stewart, are appearing with Theia Sara in a new William For photopiny. This is their first appearance in a Fox film.

HOROSCOPE.

indicated for public affairs in which they are interested. Honors for several who have not been prominent in the pass are prognosticated.

Old swomen should be especially lucky under this sway. One who has won fame should benefit greatly. This is a good government for theaters and entertainments of every sort. Women should be especially fortunate in their association with the drains. Again there is promise of great gain from nines. Inscoveries relating to the treatment of ores also are indicated. Arisons and Navada come under a planetary rule that is extraordinary propitle.

It is not a good day for beginning fourners of any sort, but edips should be especially arolded. A firster at sea is strongly foreshadowed.

Contracts should not be signed after most today as they are likely to had to delays and disappointments. Weddings and engagements are subject to the best influences.

Santiment and engagements are subject to the best influences.

Santiment and remance will be more petent than usual during the coming unmer.

Sentiment and romance will be more perent than usual during the coming nammer.

Writers may find conditions unfavorable for work, but they have the prophecy that literature will be greatly enriched in the next five years.

Extreme measures in political affairs are forefuld and much personal worfare is likely, according to the seers. Party dissensions and caustic crifteisms will be prominent. Scandals and gossip that assall character also are probable.

In the United States senste a sensational spisode is prognosticated. Students and teachers have an augury that is most encouraging, since it appears to point toward a broadening of opportunity.

Persons whose hirthdate it is should have a busy and propurous year. The health of members of the family may be precarious.

Children born on this day are likely

When the Baby Can't Sleep

It's in the long, peacaful hours of aleep that your baby grows. When he can't sleep something is wrong. Probably his food Perhaps his little system is desperately struggling with the heavy card and the germs of raw cow's milk, meant for the four big stomachs of a calf-not the one tiny stomach of your baby. The haby will aleep as he should and grow as he should if you give him the food he needs.
